Latest Update: International Indigenous Theological Conference Postponed and to be Held Jointly with the Pastoral Continuing Education Program

The International Indigenous Theological Conference, originally scheduled to begin on July 24 as part of the 80th Anniversary celebrations of Yu-Shan Theological College and Seminary, has been postponed. The event will now be held jointly with Pastoral Continuing Education Program, and is scheduled to take place October 19-22.

In addition to the originally invited keynote speakers, the conference will feature the presentation of several academic papers, fostering further dialogue and reflection on Indigenous theology and church ministry.

We warmly invite members of the church community and all who are interested in Indigenous theology to register and participate.

Detailed registration information will be announced soon.
