会議録 (S/PV.9586) より抜粋

Mrs. Thomas-Greenfield (United States of America):

... However, as I said before, we fully support some of the critical objectives in this non-binding resolution. ...

Mr. Žbogar (Slovenia):

... We recall the binding nature of Security Council resolutions and call for swift implementation of this clear resolution, in particular with regards to the ceasefire, the unconditional release of hostages and the urgent need for expansion of the flow of humanitarian aid. ...

Mr. Hwang (Republic of Korea):

... Even though it is not explicitly coercive under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, the parties to the conflict must bear in mind that the resolution reflects the consensus of the international community, one forged through active discussion in the Security Council and the General Assembly for more than five months. ...

Mr. Zhang Jun (China):

... Security Council resolutions are binding. We call on the parties concerned to fulfil their obligations under the Charter of the United Nations and to take due action as required by the resolution. ...

Mr. Kanu (Sierra Leone):

... The parties to the conflict are under the obligation to respect that demand by the Security Council. The parties to the conflict are urged to fully implement resolution 2728 (2024), along with resolutions 2712 (2023) and 2720 (2023). ...

Dame Barbara Woodward (United Kingdom):

... We call for this resolution to be implemented immediately. ...
